MEET DAMIEN K. H. NASH

A college professor told Damien K. H. Nash that he had some of the worst writing ability that she had ever encountered. Nash did not accept this label and took her comment as a challenge. Now, several years later, he is the founder of TNG Publishings and has recently completed his sixth book, an Amazon Top-Seller, #CompletelySingle: Learning to become the right ONE before meeting the right One.

Nash received a B.A. degree in Business Administration and an M.B.A. from Bellarmine University where he played college basketball, receiving the Coaches' Award his freshman year. He is the author of How to Load Your Truck. He also co-authored, directed and executive-produced, Big Box, Little Box children's book series and animated film. As a national speaker, he has spoken to audiences young and old about the importance of rejecting negative labels others want to place on them. Using his life experience and engaging storytelling style, Nash is an agent of change. One-hour topics include:

- #CompletelySingle—How to apply Godly principles to dating relationships
  - ◇ For Teens to Adults
- Don't Label Me—How to achieve your Goals and Dreams
  - ◇ For Teens to Adults
- So What's the Issue?—How to discover your identity in a chaotic world
  - ◇ For Teens to Adults

Damien K. H. Nash is available to speak to your organization. Contact Kathy Nash for availability nash4262@yahoo.com or 678.758.7809

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING...

"Each of us wrestles with the unflattering labels that have been attached to us. Your message encouraged us to reject the labels that paralyze us and to embrace the purpose God has given us... I believe God has great things in store for you and your team at TNG Publishings and I know that your ministry will serve as a launching pad for many others who strive to be God's best. You are an amazing young man and a daring example of what God can do through a yielded vessel."

Benson M. Karanja, Ed.D, S.S.C., President, Beulah Heights University

"Damien's presentation was heartwarming, intriguing and authentic... May the story lines that come out of his inner most being encourage everybody to fulfill their unique potential."

Dr. Carolyn L. Vessel, Executive Director, Co-Labourers with Christ
