

FAQ's

The questions listed below are just some of the many questions we are asked in relation to single adult ministry. The Singles Network is here to assist you in evaluation, developing and supporting you single adult ministry. Please call The Singles Network at 919.779.3686 or contact Kris@thesinglesnetwork.org. We can help you answer all these questions and begin your journey into the wonderful world of single adult ministry.

- How do I start a single adult ministry?
- How do I start a core group?
- My pastor doesn't seem to understand single adults, how do I get him to support us?
- Almost half of our country is single, yet it is not reflective in the church. Why?
- How do I deal with dating among our single adults?
- What are acceptable socials?
- How do I promote our single adult ministry?
- Singles are so fickle...they just can't be trusted, right?
- What is the difference between a single adult ministry and a single group?
- How should we divide our single adults?
- Should we have a single adult Sunday school class?
- Should we have a single adult ministry?
- Singles are out to just find a spouse. They aren't interested in God are they?
- How do we identify the needs of our single adults?
- How do we know if there is interest in developing a singles adult ministry?
- How do I deal with problem singles?
- How do we develop a mission or vision statement?
- What types of goals should single adults have?
- Should married people lead single adults?
- What about divorce recovery ministry?
- What about single parent family ministry?
- What are the differences in secular and Christian dating?
- How do we know when we need to hire a single adult pastor?
- Our single adult ministry keeps restarting after each year to two years...why?
- How do you develop single adult leadership?
- What about Bible studies and groups for single adults?
- What is my churches responsibility in regards to single adults?
- How do we minister to blended single adult families?
- Where can I find single adult resources?
- When do I bring in speakers?
- What should I look for in possible leaders?
- How much money should I budget for?
- What should our singles adult ministry be focused upon?
- How do we do outreach ministry?
- What kinds of things should we be praying for?